1.0 Overview of Canada Council funding to Quebec in 2008-09

- In 2008-09, the Canada Council for the Arts provided grants totalling $45.7 million to artists and arts organizations in Quebec.
- In addition to grants, $3.9 million in payments was provided to 5,468 authors through the Public Lending Right program,<sup>1</sup> as well as $868,050 in special funds in 2008-09. This brings the total amount of Canada Council funding to Quebec to over $50.5 million.
- The Canada Council awarded $7.8 million in grants to 673 artists and $37.9 million in grants to 723 arts organizations in 2008-09.
- Grants were awarded to artists and arts organizations in Quebec in dance, inter-arts, media arts, music, theatre, visual arts and writing and publishing. In 2008-09, the largest amount of funding went to theatre ($8.9 million), followed by writing and publishing ($8.8 million) and music ($7.6 million).
- 4,903 applications from Quebec artists and arts organizations were submitted to the Canada Council in 2008-09, representing 32% of all applications received.
- Funding to artists and arts organizations in Montreal totalled $33.2 million, comprising 72.8% of the total funding going to the province. Quebec City received $4.9 million in funding, representing 10.6% of total funding, and Outremont received $732,625 (1.6%). 185 additional communities in Quebec received 15.0% of the province's funding for a total of $6.8 million.
- In 2008-09, Quebec artists received 33.5% of Canada Council funding to artists, and Quebec arts organizations received 31% of the funding to arts organizations. In total, Quebec artists and arts organizations received 31.3% of Canada Council funding. In comparison, the province makes up 21.5% of Canadian artists,<sup>2</sup> and 23.3% of the Canadian population.<sup>3</sup>
- In 2008-09, 252 Quebec artists and arts professionals served as peer assessors, of which 78.2% were Francophone, and 21.8% were Anglophone, making up 31.3% of all peer assessors.

2.0 Statistical highlights about the arts in Quebec<sup>4</sup>

- In 2006, there were 30,200 artists in Quebec, representing 0.71% of the overall provincial labour force.
- The median earnings of artists in 2006 were $14,300, 44% less than the typical earnings of all provincial workers ($25,500).
- Between 1991 and 2006, the number of artists in Quebec increased more rapidly than the overall labour force (28% vs. 18%).
- In 2006, Quebec was the only province to have the highest-paid arts occupation—producers, directors, choreographers and related occupations—as its largest group, with 6,700 people reporting earnings.
- Quebecers spent a total of $5.1 billion on cultural goods and services in 2005, or 2.9% of total consumer spending in the province, the lowest such percentage of all Canadian provinces. The $5.1 billion in consumer spending on culture is more than double the $2.3 billion spent on culture in Quebec by all levels of government in 2003-04. This is the lowest consumer-to-government spending ratio of all the provinces. On a per capita basis, Quebecers' cultural spending ranks ninth in the country at $706 per resident.
- In 2005, the three most popular cultural and heritage activities in Quebec were: listening to music on CD's, cassette tapes, DVD audio discs, records, etc. (87% of the population 15 or older); reading newspapers (85%); and reading a magazine (75%).
- In 2005, 46% of Quebecers 15 or older (2.87 million residents) attended a concert or performance by professional artists of music, dance, theatre or opera (excluding cultural festivals). This is higher than the Canadian rate of 41%.

Examples of Canada Council funding in Quebec<sup>5</sup>

The Canada Council supports the endeavours of professional artists and arts organizations through its programs. The following selection illustrates the scope of the activities supported by the Canada Council in Quebec.

Carrousel International du Film de Rimouski received a $1,350 grant through the Audience and Market Development Travel Grants Program: International to travel to Malmo, Sweden, to participate at the internationally-recognized BUFF film festival in March 2009. The festival focuses primarily on cinema for young audiences and serves as an excellent meeting point for international organizations and film programmers. For Carrousel, the longest-running francophone youth cinema festival in North America, attending BUFF was a unique experience to promote Canadian films and network with world-renowned artists and presenters. Participation in the festival also marked an important opportunity to attract new and culturally diverse audiences to Rimouski, Que., thus enhancing Carrousel's position as a major film festival.

In 2008-09, Sudeshna Malik of Saint-Laurent, Que., was awarded $20,000 through the Grants to Dance Professionals: Emerging and Mid-Career program for a professional development project to explore the art of Kathak and to create a new dance production. Kathak is a highly sophisticated and codified Indian art form, which requires extensive training and complete devotion to master. As a way of developing his skills as a choreographer and producer, Malik used the grant to work under the guidance of three experienced mentors: prominent Canadian Kathak dancer Joanna de Souza, theatre director Rahul Varma, and dance choreographer Padmashree Kumudini Lakhia. Through this project, Malik hopes to excite and inspire Canadian audiences with a new Kathak-based dance vocabulary.

L'Œil de Poisson, based in Quebec, Que., was awarded a $50,800 grant through the Media Arts Commissioning Program to invite Canadian artist Diane Landry to create a three-gallery installation work entitled Chevalier de la résignation infinie. The work, set to be on display from September to October 2009, will focus on the animation-performance of images through the mixture of motorization and video projection. By blending real and virtual objects, the organization hopes this piece will create once again the sense of magical wonder and fascination that so often accompanies Landry's work. Through this project, L'Œil de Poisson expects to appeal to diverse Canadian and international audiences.

Montreal video artist and filmmaker Robert Morin received $25,000 as a winner of the 2009 Governor General's Awards in Visual and Media Arts for his unique cinematographic productions and his notable contribution to Coop Video, a resource for Montreal filmmakers. For over 25 years, Morin has pushed the boundaries of cinema by bridging fiction and documentary by imposing his unique style and vision, leaving unforgettable marks on the collective imagination. His work is a "veritable human tragedy, a relentlessly clear-sighted sparring match where reality and fiction battle it out in the grey zones of life." Despite a multitude of labels and descriptors, Morin and his work remain unclassifiable and fiercely independent.

Danny Plourde of Saint-Jean-sur-Richelieu, Que., received $1,500 through the Travel Grants to Professional Writers program to participate in poetry performances organized by Montreal's Noches de poesia at LIBER 2008, an international book fair in Barcelona, Spain, in October 2008. As part of a group of Canadians from diverse backgrounds, Plourde participated in poetry events, lectures and concert performances to enhance his personal creativity and promote multilingual poetry from Canada. This international event afforded Plourde the opportunity to encounter other Canadian, Spanish and Catalan poets with inspiring world views. Plourde is optimistic that this experience will assist him in creating new international contacts for future professional collaborations.

Zachary Fraser of Montreal received $5,000 through the Grants to Theatre Artists program to participate in a residency at the Mermaid Theatre of Nova Scotia in order to strengthen his skills in puppet design, construction and manipulation. From December 2008 to April 2009, Fraser participated in multi-week residencies to create an innovative solo puppet show for adults inspired by the themes of current world events and the epic legends of the voyageurs. As with his previous works, this project tackled notions of nationalism and the universal hope of belonging, with the goal of appealing to audiences of different cultures, languages, and nationalities. The creative freedom and artistic guidance afforded by these residencies benefited Fraser as an artist and assisted in his development as an established Canadian puppeteer.

With a $4,130 grant from the Audience and Market Development Travel Grants Program: International, Montreal music group Kletzory traveled to Sibiu, Romania, to perform at the SibFest, an international music festival, in June 2008. Since forming in 2003, Kletzory has played a wide variety of venues, both in Canada and internationally, and credits much of its success to a signature blend of innovative arrangements and a respect for the traditions of klezmer music. For Kletzory, attending the festival was a positive experience, as it gave the band a better understanding of the Eastern European market and resulted in new contacts for future collaborations.

A $16,600 grant was awarded to Loren Williams through the Assistance to Visual Artists: Project Grants program to create a photography-based installation in a Montreal laneway with photographs provided by the area's residents. Inspired by social history and driven by the desire to preserve memory, Williams will collect family photographs from each resident on avenue Lartigue and display enlarged versions of the images in the residential windows. The display will be included in programming for the city-wide events Les journées de la culture and Montréal, Mois de la Photo, which bring these personal memories into the public sphere. Essentially, this unique project affords Williams the valuable opportunity to work within a culturally-stimulating environment as a means of enhancing her experience as an artist.

Productions Kalabanté of Montreal was awarded $30,000 through the Integrated Arts Program for Organizations: Artists and Community Collaboration to create an interdisciplinary artistic production. Kô Ryass blends West African music, dance and theatre with elements of circus performance to promote multiculturalism and international cooperation. Founded in 2004, Productions Kalabanté produces events, performances, training workshops, and conferences in Montreal, and throughout North America, to share African culture and give visibility to their efforts to improve the conditions of youth living in the Republic of Guinea. As noted by Yamoussa Bangora, President of the organization, the energy and spirit of Kô Ryass is undeniable and breath-taking, as diverse audiences witness an unparalleled fusion of African culture and Western techniques.

Ojibway-Cree choreographer Lara Kramer, a first-time grant recipient from Montreal, received a $9,500 grant through the Aboriginal Peoples Production Project Grants in Dance program to conduct research for a dance project inspired by the experiences of children who attended residential schools. With the grant, Kramer visited the Indian Residential Schools Museum of Canada in Manitoba in order to physically understand the environment. She then returned to the studio to create a movement piece that explores the daily routines, rituals, duties and behaviours children once encountered as part of their residential school experience. Kramer presented her dance at Montreal's First People's Festival in June 2009, as a way of sharing her newfound perspectives with the community, and thus contributing to Canada's collective history.

In April 2009, Montreal artist Elisabeth Belliveau was awarded $2,000 through the Travel Grants to Media Arts Professionals program to present Best Attempt, a four-minute stop-motion animated film, at the 10th annual Dawson City International Short Film Festival, in Dawson, Y.T. Each year, the festival brings together national and international film and video artists to participate in presentations, workshops, panel discussions, and artist talks to develop dialogue for future collaborations and exchanges. Belliveau presented a film that was developed during a residency program in Sackville, N.B., and articulated colour, light, geography, and architecture of that region. The experience of the 2009 festival afforded the artist to opportunity to gain a better sense of contemporary film production, while promoting her work alongside that of international artists.

Through the Audience and Market Development Travel Grants Program: International, Yves Lambert and the Bébert Orchestra received a $3,730 grant to perform at the Celtic Connections festival in Glasgow, Scotland, in February 2009. Headed by Yves Lambert, former member of La Bottine Souriante, the band's music reveals contemporary sounds with strong roots in traditional Québécois music. Its music has been described as "sparkling arrangements of venerable love-songs and dance tunes that combines a wealth of traditional experiences with subtle jazz and world-music influence." Since the festival is attended by some of the world's leading programmers, the Orchestra from Sainte-Mélanie, Que., was afforded the opportunity to develop new markets, meet new contacts for potential future works, and establish relations with major folk music organizations and promoters.

4.0 Overall arts and culture funding in Quebec by all three levels of government<sup>6</sup>

- Arts and culture funding to Quebec from all three levels of government stood at $2.5 billion in 2006-07 (the latest year of overall data from Statistics Canada).
- Federal funding made up the largest share at 48% (about $1.2 billion) followed by provincial funding at 32% ($797.1 million) and municipal funding at 20% ($507.4 million).
- Federal government cultural funding to Quebec totalling $1.2 billion is primarily concentrated (89%) in broadcasting, heritage resources (historic parks/sites and nature/provincial parks) and film and video. The remaining 11% of funding is allocated to areas including multidisciplinary arts ($71.6 million), literary arts ($31.6 million), libraries ($29.6 million), and performing arts ($35.9 million). In the comparable year (2006-07), Canada Council funding accounted for 4% of all federal cultural spending in Quebec.
- Between 2003-04 and 2006-07, federal cultural spending in Quebec increased from $1.1 billion to $1.2 billion (an increase of 9%). During the same time period, Canada Council funding in Quebec increased from $39 million to $44.5 million.
- The largest part of provincial government funding is concentrated in three areas: libraries, heritage resources and performing arts (63% or $505.1 million). However, funding is also allocated by the provincial government to multidisciplinary arts ($103.6 million), broadcasting ($71.2 million) and film and video ($49.4 million).
